error description (what is defective, what is complained about):

Please note:

To prevent transport damage, always return the goods in packaging suitable for shipping together with the return form (safety data sheet if applicable). We are not liable for transport damage and do not provide compensation. We reserve the right to return returns without a completed return form (safety data sheet if applicable) to the sender. For unjustified returns, we charge a handling fee of 15% of the value of the goods.
